

Now Available at Amazon.com

The first book to connect Jesus and sustainable living!

- Read how science and religion blend in an unprecedented mix of creative possibilities.
- Meet a witty Jesus who taught and demonstrated through laughter and satire an equitable distribution of food and healing.
- Understand how seventy of his sayings form the basis for ecological principles.
- Discover personal answers to practical green questions.
- Learn the earthiness of the Aramaic language of Jesus.
- Find yourself motivated as never before to help the human species survive and create a new, healthier Earth.

Joe Grabill

Retired professor of history
Author, Speaker, Consultant
info@greenkingdomcome.net

The author weaves into the book:

- His life story,
- Experiences during his seven research trips to Galilee,
- Encounters while writing in winter on Madeline Island in Lake Superior, and
- Dozens of sources on first-century Jesus and on the emerging green revolution.

See it on the web

www.greenkingdomcome.net

(Table of Contents, Preface, Reviews, Illustrations, Blog, & Interview with Author on Website)